Headspace Family and Friends Talks

The Family and Friends talks have been going really well at headspace Albany. Their next talk is all about Exam Stress and Vocational Plans. Great for parents and families of High School students. They will have Rachel from Skill Hire along to talk about Transition to Work program they run for 15-21 year olds who have disengaged from school also. There is no RSVP required for talks and they are very casual and allow parents and carers to ask questions.

Countryweek 2016 Results

NASHS joined 3377 other students from 48 Senior High Schools coming from Esperance to Christmas Island in the largest country school sporting event in the southern hemisphere..

Sincere thanks to Country Week manager, Mrs Kylie Rennie, staff and all of our community volunteers for their enormous time commitment to provide this opportunity for our students. Special thanks go to our wonderful coaches, David Arthur, Ian Booth, Ben Walker, Jean Davis, Simon Slater, Jo Morgan, Beck Gallimore, Renae Paunic, Darian Le Page and Tom Dimer who have given up their time to train and prepare the teams.

Photos and results are available on our Facebook page. Or Click "READ MORE" to see the results of the NASHS Countryweek teams for 2016.

Roof replacement

We are currently having sections of our school roof replaced. There will be lots of scaffolding and temporary fencing around the school. We will endeavour to minimise class disruptions as much as possible. We ask for all staff, students and visitors to stay clear of the scaffolding and construction zones.

Thanks for your patience.
