

INQUIRY PROCESS

INTRODUCTION

The Inquiry Process is a method of gathering information from primary and/or secondary sources for an investigation. The Inquiry Process provides a clear pathway to gaining knowledge beginning with planning your research topic, finding and assessing relevant information (researching), interpreting information (processing) and evaluating your findings.

INQUIRY PROCESS

Partially adapted from the IB Inquiry process and the Department of Education Inquiry Process and featured on the Scotch College WA research skills page